

~~SECRET~~

C O
P
Y

2 May 1951

MEMORANDUM FOR: DIRECTOR, OF CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE

SUBJECT: Exchange of intelligence materials

25X1X7

25X1X7

[REDACTED], called upon the undersigned this date to establish channels for the exchange of intelligence materials. Agreement that such channels should be established, and that appropriate intelligence materials should be exchanged, had been reached in oral discussions between the Office of the DCI and [REDACTED].

25X1X7

25X1X7

25X1X7

2. Materials [REDACTED] will be transmitted in seven copies from [REDACTED] to the Assistant Director, C&D, who will see that they are properly logged and controlled, and then routed to those in CIA who have need to use them.

25X1X7

25X1X7

3. Materials from CIA will be transmitted in seven copies from AD/CD to [REDACTED] will register the documents in his own office, and transmit them [REDACTED]

25X1X7

25X1X7

4. In accordance with standing instructions, this Office will transmit [REDACTED] only such materials as fall within the categories approved for exchange [REDACTED] by the State-Defense Military Information Control Committee. In general, these will include only such materials as are or may properly be cleared for transmission [REDACTED] plus papers dealing with problems of Western Hemisphere defense. (These latter may not go to [REDACTED])

25X1X7

25X1X7

JAMES M. ANDREWS
Assistant Director
Collection & Dissemination

cc: Liaison
Asst. Deputy, I&S
Central Records

25X1A9a

Memo: [REDACTED]

Original of this memo was returned to me with the notation "DCI has seen"

C
O
P
Y

~~SECRET~~